SCIENTIFIC SOCIETIES

Orators for the Semi-Centennial of Roanoke College

SOCIAL LIFE IN SALEM

Mr. Kiuse Kim, of Seoul, Korea to Graduate as Bachelor of Arts—Festivities Arranged for Commencement Season.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SALEM, VA., May 9.—A joint meeting of the scientific societies of Virginia College and Roanoke College was held in the hall of the Democratic Literary Society in Salem last evening. The subjects of the papers read, and their readers were: "To Animals Reason?" Miss Moss, of Louisiana; "Salt and Its Physiological Uses," Mr. H. P. Mann, of Pennsylvania; "The Great Alpine Tunnel," Mr. D. N. Pope, of North Carolina; "The Antiquity of Man," Miss Ratsburg, of Louisiana. The social features of the programme consisted of a quartette composed of Messrs. Pope, Orator, Mann and Mann, who sang "Kentucky Babe," solo, "The Holy City," by Miss Lucas; violin solo, Mr. K. B. Patterson; a recitation by Miss Folkes, teacher of expression in Virginia College; solo, "Under the Shade of the Palm," Miss Lindsey; solo, "Asthore," by Mr. Moyer.

SEMI-CENTENNIAL.
The faculty of Roanoke College has announced the speakers from the graduating class who will deliver orations at the semi-centennial commencement in June. They are: Virgil Greiner, Coppenhaver, of Virginia, subject, "The Utilitarian Trend of Education"; Klusio Kimm, of Seoul, Korea, subject, "Russia in the Far East"; Herman Paul Mann, of Pennsylvania, subject, "Organization of Social Forces"; Errell Hogan Orator, of Missouri, subject, "Co-operation in Church Activity"; Little Gwinn McClung, of Virginia, subject, "The Lullaby of the Future."

A small but enjoyable get-together was given in the Hotel Crawford last night. The dancers were Miss Katie Dillard with Mr. J. P. Jones, Miss Nannie Logan with Mr. S. Patterson, Miss Mary Caperton with Mr. R. S. Funk, Miss Irma Kilian with Mr. C. B. Preston, Miss Shoppard with Mr. Lylo McClung, Miss Mattie Rowan with Mr. Royal Cannaday, Miss Roxie Dillard with Mr. Robt. Galloway, Miss Grace Wiley with Mr. Lortick, Miss Minnie Bowyer with Mr. Wythe Peyton, Miss Bertha Altizer with Mr. John Logan. The dance was led by Messrs. George Logan and Little McClung.

JUNIOR GERMAN.
The Junior German Club has been organized here with Mr. J. P. Jones as president and Mr. R. S. Funk as treasurer and general manager. Germans will be given once a week. Misses Mary and Nora Shanks will entertain the Social Club on next Thursday evening at the home of their mother on Broad Street. This meeting of the club is looked forward to with much enjoyment by the members. Arrangements are being made for the commencement Germans of Roanoke College. There will be four, and they will be danced in the Town Hall. An unusually large number of young ladies will be here in June to attend the semi-centennial exercises of Roanoke College, and the dances will be larger than any held for a number of years.

Roanoke College will have among its graduates this commencement Mr. Klusio Kimm, of Seoul, Korea, who is the second one of that nation to take the degree of Bachelor of Arts in any college, the first being Mr. Kiu Bang Sohn, who graduated here in 1898. Mr. Kimm is a bright young man and a fluent speaker, and his graduating oration on "Russia in the Far East" is looked forward to with interest.

CORN-PLANTING TIME

A Fire in the Woods Behind a Church. Notes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SCOTTSVILLE, VA., May 9.—Farmers are busy planting corn just now, and being better prepared for the work than usual, speak hopefully of the prospect of a good crop. A fire broke out in the woods back of the First Baptist Church, colored, one day this week, and for a while seemed hard to control, but was finally put out after a good deal of trouble. It was thought to have been caused by some one smoking in the woods. Mr. George Patterson, of Buckingham, was a guest of his sister, Mrs. Nannie Gilmer, recently. Misses Hattie Mathews and Eva Powers visited Scottsville on Tuesday. Mr. James Page will take charge of the Omohundro livery stable shortly. Mr. Walter Camden, of Buckingham, was in town this week. Mr. Martin Moon, of Richmond, was here on the 8d. Mr. Robert Blackburn, who has been ill with the mumps, is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Scott, of Warren, visited the town on Wednesday. Senator F. C. Moon was in Scottsville this week.

THE PEA CROP A FAILURE

Pessimistic View of the Fishing Business and the Bottom Drops Out of the Crab Market—Mr. Morris a Modern Job.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

YORKTOWN, VA., May 9.—The new Constitution with its provisions, especially in the line of State assessments, is quite a conundrum to all usual folks, the country darky especially. Since the advent of the first day of the month, the limit of operation of the tax law, developments have been exceedingly interesting to the sable Virginian. The butcher, the barber, the pop-shop keeper, have all been called upon to swell the funds of the Commonwealth by half a hundred dollars. To a judge of human nature, the attitude these people assume is quite amusing; talk a braas hand clean out of sight, defiant as they can well be, and others mock as Moses, pay the cash in with a hearty good will, or go entirely out of the business. If all the imprecations which have been heaped upon the heads of the gentlemen who have been levied upon in law were collected in a receptacle big enough to hold them, the bottomless abyss of Satan's domain would be a miniature beside it, and the atmosphere of defiance, he a summer resort, compared with the volume of sulphurous threats which have emanated from the minds and mouths of the Afro-American.

THE PEA CROP.

The pea crop, which has begun to be picked, the past week, bids fair to be even more of a failure than was expected, the percentage of loss as estimated by prominent farmers and truckers has been placed as low now as 75 per cent. They claim that one-fourth of a crop will be as big a yield as can possibly be expected. Some truckers will be well enough satisfied to make enough peas to handle the crop and pay for the seed, not expecting to be able to clear anything at all. This is due mostly to the ravages of the pea louse, whose destruction has been attempted in many ways, but without success. The terrible devastation which these parasites manage to accomplish is truly wonderful and seemingly beyond reach of any care for the evil. Potatoes are more promising than was expected two weeks ago, and barring further accidents or drawbacks, some few may yet be made, although the crop as a general thing, is very much hurt, and when harvested will show a large per cent. of loss.

THE BOTTOM DROPPED OUT.

An interesting, more startling than otherwise, condition of affairs exists among the farmers of the State. The season and left the pound men with less than the usual amount of the crop. The season of 1902. No catches of any size whatever have been made, there being absolutely no remembrance of the season being afraid, as one of their number said recently, to lift their nets, not caring to meet the deep and bitter disappointment of finding nothing. Right along this line also is noticeable the deplorable condition of the crab market. Fifty cents a barrel in Baltimore, which can be realized for the crustacean, which makes the business of crabbing prohibitory.

The United States training ship Albana is expected here at any moment from sea for a period of ten or fifteen days' chance at gunning practice. She was due here on the 7th.

MODERN JOB.

Mr. D. W. Davis, the modern "Job," who was so exceedingly unfortunate as to lose his house and contents by fire in the last of the winter, was unfortunately enough to have the same fate in the recent conflagration of the West Point. His trouble here consisted in the loss of a house also by the great fire. Certainly the trial of a Job, best this man at every turn. Dr. Ernest R. Martin, of Gratton, accompanied by the Rev. J. W. Baker, pastor of the Methodist church, left here yesterday for Campbell county, the home of his fiancée, Miss Mattie Eppes Asher. The wedding takes place in the near future. Dr. Martin is originally of Fluvanna, but has been stationed for the past few years in the West Point. Lebanon Christian Church held the postponed exercises of its regular Easter entertainment on Sunday last. The programme was an excellent one, the features of the evening being the vocal productions of Mrs. T. H. Stryker and Miss Indiana Bryan. Rev. Dr. Glascock, of Petersburg, was expected to address the occasion, was detained away, his place being acceptably filled by Mr. J. M. Smith, of Spotsylvania. Quite a nice collection was realized for the benefit of mission work. Mr. J. J. Whipple, of Tallahassee, Fla., and Mr. M. N. Fuller, of West Point, were visitors here during the week.

SALEM SORTS

Sale of Town and Country Property. News and Gossip.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SALEM, VA., May 9.—James Shipman has returned from Albemarle county, Va., where he has been teaching during the past session. Attorneys L. C. Hansbrough and J. S. Barber have sold their farm on Back Creek, this county, to Mr. L. D. Bell, of the county, for $5,500. Miss Rosalyn Evans is the guest of friends and relatives in Bristol. Miss Mary Cameron, of Union, W. Va., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Sinead, on Main Street. Miss Anna Coster, of New York city, has arrived here to spend the summer at the home of Mrs. J. P. Saul, on the Boulevard.

Mrs. Rachel Vawter, of Blacksburg, in the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henderson, on Main Street. Mr. Bolling Hubbard, who has a lucrative position in the State of Montana, is here for a stay with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Hubbard. Dr. F. H. Martin, pastor of the Salem Baptist Church, will leave to-morrow for Savannah, Ga., where he will attend the Southern Baptist Convention. Rev. Mr. Martin will be accompanied by his wife. Attorney J. A. Baer has sold his handsome residence on Broad Street to Captain Adam Giben, of Monroe county, W. Va. The purchase price was $4,000 cash. Captain Giben will move his family to Salem in June.

General Superintendent John H. Parrott, of the American Coal Company, of New York, has moved his family from Lenoxing, Md., to Salem, and will make his home here. Mr. Parrott is having his pretty residence on Broad Street and the grounds around it considerably beautified and improved. Colonel A. M. Bowman, commissioner to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and Mr. J. C. Langhorne, have returned to Salem from St. Louis, where they witnessed the grandeur of the dedication exercises of the World's Fair.

Rev. T. A. Russell, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, in Bristol, Tenn., is now holding a mission in St. Paul's Church here. He is an earnest and forcible minister, and his preaching is drawing excellent congregations. On Friday night Bishop A. M. Randolph, of this diocese, will be here and will hold confirmation services at St. Paul's.

About Piano Prices.

Don't pay an exorbitant price for a good piano or a low price for a poor one!

The artistic STIEFF is the FAIREST PRICED high-grade piano in the world. It is the world's standard! And its price is neither one extreme or the other. We make the Stieff and sell it direct from the factory at actual cost of production, plus one fair, reasonable profit. Buyers of the Stieff realize that the saving of the between profit—that profit the dealer has to make when he buys from the manufacturer—is left out of the Stieff price. The sweet, mellow tone which distinguishes it—the wonderful, lasting singing quality—assure for the friendship of the cultured musician. It is the ideal piano for the home and the favorite instrument for concert work.

The Artistic STIEFF Piano

We have on exhibition in our window
1 Conover and 2 Kingsbury Uprights that we'll sell at ridiculously low prices!

By "ridiculously low" we mean that the prices we ask for them are considerably lower than their makers ask. We accepted them as part pay on three queenly STIEFFS, and they're absolutely as good to-day as they were the day they left the factory. And if they were worth then what their makers sold them for, they certainly are (or ought to be) worth just as much to-day, for they've been in use but a very short time. Below we give a brief description of them. If you want fuller particulars we will be glad to give them.

A $350 Kingsbury Upright for $198.

It was bought about three months ago. There's not a mar or scratch on it. Accepted as part pay on an artistic STIEFF.

A $500 Conover Upright for $298.

Best walnut case. Has been in use but a few months. Positively as good as new. Accepted as part pay on an artistic STIEFF.

Investigate!

A Kingsbury Upright for only $190.

Mahogany case. Positively can't be told from a brand new instrument. Accepted as part pay on an artistic STIEFF. We are eager to sell it.

CARY'S BROOK DISPOSED OF

Splendid Estate Passes Into Hands of Samuel Janney.

WARE PARISH VESTRYMEN

A Boy Seriously Injured by the Kick of a Horse—Twelve Branches of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union Organized.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

GLOUCESTER, C. H., VA., May 9.—Samuel Janney, of Maryland, has bought "Cary's Brook," the farm belonging to Mr. C. E. Cary. It is generally conceded that Mr. Janney has gotten possession of one of the best improved farms in Gloucester. Mr. Richard Janney, brother of Mr. S. Janney, bought the "Roaring Springs," a fine old place near Cary's Brook, several years ago. His brother thus had an object lesson of the value of Gloucester lands. Mr. Cary is building a handsome residence in Gloucester, and in the interim of the sale and moving into the house, will rent Mr. Ware's home in the village. The following gentlemen were elected vestrymen on Wednesday for Ware Parish: Messrs. C. E. Cary, Thomas Henson, Lewis Hyrd, F. C. Carratt, Snowden Hopkins, W. C. Perrin, John Talb, Judge J. L. Tallaferr, Isaac Slingluff and W. S. Mott.

KICKED BY A HORSE.

Hughes Ward, the son of Mr. Ward, of Gloucester Courthouse, was kicked in the face by a horse Sunday evening and very seriously hurt. The hemorrhage which followed was stopped with great difficulty by Dr. W. T. Jones.

Mrs. James Duncan has returned to Norfolk. Mr. Munford, of the L. C. Munford Banking Company, was in Gloucester Monday. This bank is doing a fine business.

Mr. John Tyler Seawell has returned to Newport News. Mrs. Newton, after organizing twelve branches of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Gloucester, crossed over to York county to-day to carry on the good work in that county.

Mrs. J. P. Freeman and sons, Carroll and Billups, left Saturday for Norfolk, where they will join Mr. Freeman, who is one of the first officers in the M. and M. Company, and accompany him on his trip to Providence, R. I.

Mr. C. R. Burton, of Newport News, spent several days last week with his brother, Robert T. Burton, at "River-side," North River. Henry Wilkins, who has recently been the guest of his sister, Mrs. John Landers, at North Auburn, has returned to Norfolk.

Captain W. B. Nelson is having a spacious dwelling erected, which will add greatly to our town's appearance. Rev. Jack Seny and wife are "at home" to their friends at Mobjack, where they have recently begun housekeeping. J. D. Elms, of the West Point Oyster Company, spent several days at C. A. Brown's last week. He was looking after his oysters planted in North River.
